Cultural Movement :

We will host a cultural moment with 200 slum children at Hatkhola of Baradat under North 24 Pgs in honour of a great patriot leader of our country. The programme will involve a variety of activities such as a quiz competition on Indian history and culture, a painting competition based on an iconic moment in the leader's life, and a dance performance to a patriotic song. We will also distribute snacks and refreshments to the children and give out small gifts to the winners of the competitions. Finally, we will end the event with a speech about the leader and their contribution to the nation. With this cultural moment, we hope to inspire the slum children to be proud of their nation and to strive for a better future.

Observe Environment Day :

On 5th June, BISA Education Centre celebrated Environment Day to spread awareness about the importance of protecting our environment. The event was attended by 100 children, teachers and staff members.

The event started with a brief introduction about the environment and its importance in our life. The event then highlighted the importance of conserving our environment by following sustainable development. The children were shown a presentation about the importance of reducing air and water pollution, recycling, reducing plastic and other materials, and the importance of planting trees.

The children were also engaged in various activities to help them understand the importance of protecting our environment. They participated in fun activities like paper bag making, making bird feeders and planting trees. They also created posters with messages about conserving the environment.

The event ended with a pledge by the children to protect and conserve the environment. The Education Centre distributed saplings to the children so that they can take them home and plant them.

Overall, the Environment Day was a great success and the event helped to spread awareness about the importance of protecting our environment. It also helped to instill a sense of responsibility in the children to protect and conserve our environment.

Education Program :

BISA Education Centre for Slum Children is a non-profit organisation that provides education opportunities to deprived children in the Hatkhola slums of Kolkata. It was set up in 2018 with the aim of providing education to children who have been deprived of the educational opportunities they deserve.

The Centre provides classes to 62 children from 5 am to 9 am in the evening, six days a week. The Centre's curriculum focuses on teaching the children basic reading, writing, and arithmetic skills. Apart from this, the Centre also provides classes on social and moral values, so that the children can become better citizens.

The Centre also provides basic amenities to the children, such as a clean and safe environment, proper lighting, and a safe toilet facility. The Centre also provides basic medical care to the children and their families. The Centre also provides the children with a nutritious meal every day to supplement their dietary needs.

The Centre also organizes various extra-curricular activities for the children, such as sports, arts, and crafts. These activities help the children to develop their physical and creative abilities. The Centre also takes the children on educational trips to nearby places, so that they can learn more about the world around them.

Awareness program on Domestic Violence 2005 :

Domestic violence is a major problem in our society and has far-reaching consequences for victims and society at large. The Domestic Violence Act 2005 was passed to protect women from violence and abuse at home. Barasat Institute of Social Activity (BISA) organised an awareness program to spread knowledge about the Act among the deprived and helpless women in our community.

The program was attended by representatives from the police, the judiciary, and experts in the field of domestic violence. They discussed the legal provisions and implications of the Domestic Violence Act, as well as its provisions for the protection of women. The attendees were also informed about the various services available to them, such as counseling, medical aid, legal aid, and police protection.

The attendees were also made aware of their rights under the Act and the various options available to them to seek justice. The experts also provided counseling services to those in need. The program provided a platform for the participants to share their experiences, discuss their problems, and learn from each other.

The program was a great success and it was well-received by the participants. It was a great opportunity for them to understand their rights and the legal protection available to them in case of domestic violence. The awareness program empowered the women to take a stand against domestic violence and to seek justice if they ever found themselves in such a situation.

The success of this program is a testament to the hard work and dedication of BISA in bringing about positive change in society. The organization is committed to helping victims of domestic violence and providing them with the necessary support and guidance. BISA will continue to work towards creating a safe and secure environment for all women.

Women and Adolescent Empowerment:

Barasat Institute of Social Activity (BISA) recently organised a program titled 'Women and Adolescent Empowerment in Community'. This program was conducted to raise awareness about the importance of empowering women and adolescents in the community. recently organised a program titled 'Women and Adolescent Empowerment in Community'. This program was conducted to raise awareness about the importance of empowering women and adolescents in the community. The primary goal of this program was to create an environment that fosters gender equality and provides equal opportunities for women and adolescents to participate in development activities.

The program started with a brief introduction about the concept of gender equality and the need for empowering women and adolescents in the community. Further, the program highlighted the various challenges faced by women and adolescents due to the gender gap in society. This was followed by an interactive session where representatives from different communities shared their experiences and discussed the ways in which gender inequality affects their lives.

Next, the program focused on the importance of education and skill building for women and adolescents. The speakers stressed on the need to build a supportive environment to ensure that women and adolescents have access to educational and economic opportunities. They also discussed the need to ensure the safety of women and adolescents in the community and how it can help in creating an equitable and gender-sensitive society.

The program concluded with a discussion on the various initiatives taken by the government to promote women and adolescent empowerment in the community. The participants of the program also shared their ideas on how to promote gender equality and create a more equitable society.

Overall, the program was successful in creating awareness about the importance of empowering women and adolescents in the community and in highlighting the various challenges faced by them. It has also served to bring together the different stakeholders and create an environment which supports the empowerment of women and adolescents in the community.
